

ICFAI University Meghalaya's NSS Cell Hosts Creative Competitions Celebrating the 4th Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas

In a heartfelt tribute to India's tribal freedom fighters and achievers, the NSS Cell of ICFAI University Meghalaya held a series of creative competitions on 15th November 2024 to mark the 4th Jan Jatiya Gaurav Divas. Open to all university students, the event was designed to provide a platform for participants to showcase their creativity and express their appreciation for tribal history and culture through painting, story writing, and poetry.

Event Details

Date: 15th November 2024

Time: 10 a.m. (Registration began at 9:30 a.m. with Ma'am Yada)

Venue: Building 4, Nongrim Hills, ICFAI University Meghalaya

Theme: Tribal Freedom Fighters / Tribal Achievers

The competitions lasted for one hour, during which students demonstrated their talent and cultural insight while celebrating the remarkable contributions of tribal communities. The winners in each category were as follows:

Painting: Mightyborn Sangma

Story Writing: Shurhotuo Theunuo

Poetry: Dennis Nampui.

Following the competitions, the university held a formal program which began with the ICFAI Choir singing the national anthem, followed by a floral tribute to Bhagwan Birsa Munda. The event also featured a welcome address by Ma'am Yadaphica War, a cultural song performance by the Music Department, and a keynote speech by Vice Chancellor A. Gatphoh, who also announced the winners.

The NSS Cell of ICFAI University Meghalaya congratulates the winners and thanks all participants for their enthusiasm. Events like these reflect the university's dedication to nurturing creativity, fostering cultural understanding, and promoting an appreciation for India's tribal heritage and achievements.

