

SWACHHATA HI SEVA, 2024 WAS OBSERVED BY NSS UNITS OF ICFAI UNIVERSITY MEGHALAYA TURA CAMPUS

The ICFAI University Tura's National Service Scheme (NSS) units recently conducted a successful two-day cleaning drive at Sela Wari riverbank of Asibra village and the campus premises, aligning with the Indian Government's Swachhata Hi Seva initiative.

A total of 50 volunteers took part in the two days cleaning drive programme. The event was led by Smt. Aura Stacey R Marak, NSS Programme Officer and Asst. Prof. Dept of Education.

Day 1:

The NSS Units of ICFAI University Meghalaya organized a cleaning drive at Sella Wari of Asibra Village. The communities also participated in the Cleaning Drive. (24/9/2024).

Day 2:

The NSS Units of ICFAI University Meghalaya organized a cleaning drive at the University premises. The Cleaning drive began with the pledge taking ceremony and an awareness on Swacchata which was conducted the NSS Programme Officer & Asst. Prof. Dept of Commerce , Dr. Dikki N Marak. The NSS Volunteers and Programme Officers took Swacchata Pledge. (25/9/2024)

Held on September 24th -25th, 2024, this community service program brought together students and faculty members who collectively worked towards promoting cleanliness, hygiene, and environmental awareness. Through this drive, the university reaffirmed its commitment to social responsibility and sustainability, collecting over 100+ kilograms of waste and sensitizing locals and students on waste management and segregation practices. This initiative demonstrates ICFAI University Tura's dedication to fostering a cleaner, greener, and healthier society.

