

World Blood Donors' Day – June 14, 2017

World Blood Donors' Day was observed at ICFAI University Meghalaya, Tura campus with the theme of "Give Blood, Give Often, Give Now" on the 14th June' 2017 in collaboration with the Meghalaya AIDS Control Society (MACS), State Blood Transfusion Council and Blood Bank Tura Civil Hospital. The programme was attended by students of all the semesters, faculty and non-teaching staff. The members of Voluntary donors from different NGO's were also present in the occasion.

The Program commenced with a Welcome address by the chairperson, Mr. B Prasad, Admin. Officer followed by the speech on World Blood Donor's Day by Smt. Dr. S K Marak, Tura Civil hospital. She spoke on the importance and awareness of donating blood and how significant contribution that a person can make towards the society.

Smt. VSB Sangma, Dean ICFAI Tura campus enlightens the gathering about the brief history of the Blood Bank, Tura Civil Hospital. She also motivated the audience to come forward and volunteer in donating blood which can save innumerable lives.

Mr Tejrang Marak, member of one NGO's group shared his personal experiences in donating blood and becoming as one of the Voluntary donors.

Dr Tami G Momin, Blood bank Tura presented her Vote of thanks, she expresses her warm gratitude towards the University for facilitating the program within very short notice and also thanked the Faculty and students for turning up in large numbers in-spite of their summer break and inclement weather.

Soon after the program, blood donation camp was organised and in the camp overwhelming number of volunteers from students, faculty members and Administrative staff have participated and donated blood with vivacity.

